On Friday 15th December (weather dependent) the whole school will be taking part in a charity fun run to raise money for Dove House Hospice. Sponsor forms will be going home next week. The children will all be provided with reindeer antlers and red noses to wear and will be running after Father Christmas around the school field! The children will run/walk as far as they can. The children will get to keep their antlers and red noses at the end.

This will be a great event so please sponsor your children, if you can.
