Year 5 Trip to London

Y5JG had a fantastic time in London on Wednesday. They visited many of the famous landmarks and even managed to see Princess Anne arriving at Buckingham Palace!

Attendance Matters!

Thanks to our parents and carers for ensuring children are in school and learning. This week has been extremely positive for attendance with a weekly figure of 97.19 %. This is well above national averages! We appreciate your support.

Nursery Places

We have places available for our nursery for September. If you have a child who is already 3 or turns 3 before September 1st, please pick up an application form the school office.

Parent Survey

Thank you to all parents & carers who've completed the parent survey. Your views are really important, and we use them to continue to provide an excellent provision for your child/ren. I'll share further details of the survey next week.

Y6 Leadership Team

We will shortly be revealing the Y6 leadership team for the summer term! Lots of children applied and wrote fabulous letters of application. The voting system is underway, and we will be able to tell the successful candidates on Monday. Good luck Y6!
